

Civil War Leadership Papers

The United States American Civil War demonstrated a time where a lot of people came forward and showed true leadership skills. It was also a time when some of those people who were in those leadership positions were not always qualified. Below you will find a list of individuals who lead the north and the south. Pick one of the names listed below and conduct research on their role in the Civil War. Using the article we read on leadership skills write a paper that evaluates your persons skills.

Union

1. Abraham Lincoln
2. Andrew Johnson
3. Robert Anderson
4. Ulysses S. Grant
5. Winfield Scott Hancock
6. George B. McClellan
7. Irwin McDowell
8. George Meade
9. John Pope
10. Winfield Scott
11. William T. Sherman

Confederate

1. Jefferson Davis
2. Pierre Beauregard
3. Jubal Anderson Early
4. Ambrose Powell Hill
5. John Bell Hood
6. Thomas J. "Stonewall" Jackson
7. Robert E. Lee
8. James Longstreet
9. J.E.B. Stuart
10. Nathan Bedford Forrest
11. John C. Breckinridge